The following report is from a Spanish police source:

1. Subject, Belgian by nationality, is now living in Madrid at Avenue José Antonio 50, 2nd floor. He is 45 years old, and married.
2. During World War II subject was a high-ranking official in the Raxist movement, and an intimate of Leon ~~DECHELLE~~. He also served as an officer in the German S.S. At the end of the war, he was arrested in Belgium in company with his superior officer in the S.S. The latter was shot, but subject succeeded in escaping, crossed France and reached Spain in 1948. He naturally had no passport, and crossed the Spanish border clandestinely with his wife and daughter. When brought before the Spanish authorities, the latter did not place him in a concentration camp, but instead allowed him to continue to Madrid.
3. In addition to the dialects of his own country, subject speaks English, German, French and Dutch, and until recently has been acting as a tourist guide. He will shortly open a tourist office at Avenue José Antonio 66. The source of the funds which are enabling him to open this office is not known.
4. According to source, subject claims that ~~DECHELLE~~ has not left Spain, and that the latter was seen recently in Málaga, although under what circumstances and by whom he will not reveal.
